

The route now turns west onto a river gorge at 3658m (5-7 hours). Overnight at the Shira hut campsite (3800m).

Day 4: On this day after breakfast, continue to the nearby Shira Plateau, the Shira needles and cathedral. From the Shira Plateau continue trekking to the east towards the lava tower called the sharks tooth. Shortly after the tower you come to a junction leading to the arrow glacier. Continue to Barranco hut campsite (3900m) for overnight. (5-7 hours)

Day 5: Leaving Barranco and ascend the Barranco Wall with some wonderful views for the top. Then descend through the Karanga Valley to your next camp site for the night (about 3-4 hours).

Day 6: In the morning an easy day continues trekking to the Barafu hut campsite (4600m) for overnight. (3-4 hours). The two peaks, Mawenzi and Kibo can be seen from this point.

Day 7: An early start for Stella point (5745m) on the way to the Summit, Uhuru peak. This part of the climb takes about 8hrs. You have now reached the highest point in Africa (5895m)!! From the summit descend back to Barafu, (about 3 hours) then continue to Mweka hut campsite (3100m) for overnight. (5 hours).

Day 8: The day is spent descending to the Mweka gates, (5 hours), where you will be met & transferred to Arusha at Suye Hill Mini Lodge for dinner and overnight.

This day we we'll have congratulation party.

What our clients say...

Thank you Cuthbert for a wonderful trip to Africa. A well planned program from AfriExpedition. It was a great experience to climb Kilimanjaro, and a lovely safari with a very professional guide. The paradise Zanzibar was a wonderful experience. Thank you for a fabulous birthday celebration in Zanzibar.

Thank you very much for welcoming us in your wonderful house at Suye Hill.

*Love, Jane

Thank you, Mallya, Mami and Lemar for the wonderful time in Tanzania. 3 weeks! Amazing trip! We hope to come back soon! Best wishes from Switzerland!
